Getting a grasp of my unique perspective early on during an initial call, I think they call this the Diagnostic. True to its meaning the team at INTOO were able to identify a range of individual elements from this call that I could truly get the most value out of and in doing so devise an approach to fit my circumstances, I don't think I have ever felt more supported

I've worked with INTOO over several months, and found their unique approach to the support hugely valuable. Their ability to get me asking myself the right questions helped me evaluate my options more effectively. Being matched with an expert coach gave me the consultative approach I was looking for, helping me get to the heart of my objectives. A truly invaluable 12 months
